THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON

The Old Brass Spittoon has been awarded to the winner of the Indiana-Michigan State football game since the trophy's inception in 1950.

The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at MSU and was quickly accepted by the IU Student Senate.

The spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 200 years old. Legend holds that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded (IU - 1820, MSU - 1855).

Indiana and Michigan State have faced each other since 1922 and the trophy became a part of the series 28 years after the first meeting.

The Hoosiers won the Old Brass Spittoon with a 24-21 overtime victory in 2016.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 93 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended "an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block 'I' and 'P' letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the 'Old Oaken Bucket' until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link."

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in Southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket around 175 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925 in Bloomington.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2018-19 Governor's Cup. The overall winner of the contest is awarded a trophy at the end of the season. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 7-5-2. Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 20 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. Should the teams split or tie in regular season competition the point is split between the two institutions. If the two institutions do not compete in a head-to-head regular season competition, the team that places higher at the Big Ten Championships will be awarded the point.

BOWL HISTORY

1968 ROSE BOWL JANUARY 1, 1968 • PASADENA, CALIF.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14 INDIANA 3

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 21, 1979 • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

INDIANA 38 BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars. It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1986 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FLORIDA STATE 27 INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

1988 PEACH BOWL JANUARY 2, 1988 • ATLANTA, GA.

TENNESSEE 27 INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

The Volunteers jumped to a quick 21-3 second-quarter lead. That same stanza, UT blocked an Indiana punt on the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jorden ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

1988 LIBERTY BOWL DECEMBER 28, 1988 • MEMPHIS, TENN.

INDIANA 34 SOUTH CAROLINA 10

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a post-season berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Most Valuable Player, and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

1990 PEACH BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1990 • ATLANTA, GA.

AUBURN 27
INDIANA 23

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at half-time and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

INDIANA 24 BAYLOR 0

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and line-backer Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

2007 INSIGHT BOWL DECEMBER 31, 2007 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49 INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hoeggner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 half-time deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle El for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

2015 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

DECEMBER 26, 2015 • BRONX, N.Y.

DUKE 44 INDIANA 41

Duke kicker Ross Martin kicked a 36-yard field goal in overtime that Indiana wasn't able to match to give the Blue Devils a 44-41 victory in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

The back-and-forth game featured nine lead changes and three ties. It also saw numerous offensive records set and six turnovers combined in a game where momentum seemed to be hanging in the balance throughout.

Duke quarterback Thomas Sirk scored on a 5-yard touchdown run up the middle with just 41 seconds to play in regulation to tie the game at 41-41.

The Hoosiers drove down the field in the little time they had left, setting Griffin Oakes up for a 56-yard field goal try that missed wide left at the end of regulation.

Indiana found its scoring gear midway through the second quarter and didn't slow down the rest of the game behind a career-best day by sophomore back Devine Redding, who finished with 227 yards on 35 carries.

The Hoosiers' problem was that the Blue Devils kept up, trading scores and never allowing one team to hold momentum long enough to make a game-winning stand. Sirk accounted for the majority of the damage, passing for 163 yards and a touchdown and adding another two scores and 155 yards on the ground.

Duke scored 10 unanswered points to begin the game, but after the Hoosiers responded with their first touchdown midway through the second quarter, neither team would ever lead by more than one possession.

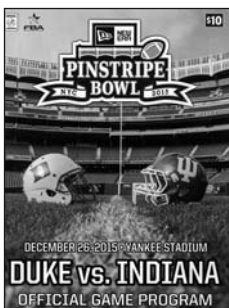

In the Indiana locker room, head coach Kevin Wilson told his players not to dwell over one play, one call or anything particular in the loss.

He wanted to see their eyes.

He wanted to tell them to keep their heads up and stay confident.

And he already wanted them to move on.

"They battled, very resilient," Wilson said. "They don't feel very good, but at the same time, it's a tremendous group of seniors. Thy kind of left a positive landmark that we can move forward with. I'm not into any moral victory. We didn't play well enough to win."

2016 FOSTER FARMS BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 2016 • SANTA CLARA, CALIF.

UTAH 26 INDIANA 24

The Indiana football team fell on a late field goal to No. 19 Utah, 26-24, in the Foster Farms Bowl.

Indiana took a 24-23 lead in the fourth quarter on a 3-yard touchdown run from Devine Redding, but the Utes connected on the field goal with just 1:24 left in the game.

Appearing in consecutive bowls for the first time since 1990-91 and for the fourth time in program history, IU posted back-to-back six-win seasons for the first time since 1993-94.

Defensively, Indiana was led by Tegray Scales, who was named the Foster Farms Bowl Defensive MVP after totaling a team-high 10 tackles to go with two sacks and three tackles for loss.

The Hoosiers started the game with a bang, as Greg Gooch forced a fumble on the opening kickoff to set IU up deep in Utah territory. Just 52 seconds into the game, quarterback Richard Lagow connected with wide receiver Mitchell Paige for a 7-yard touchdown to give Indiana a 7-0 lead with the fastest score in Foster Farms Bowl history.

Utah answered back with 17 unanswered points, taking a 17-7 lead, but the Hoosiers dominated the final minutes of the second quarter. After a Griffin Oakes 24-yard field goal, the IU defense forced its second straight three-and-out to give the offense the ball back.

On the ensuing drive, wide receiver Nick Westbrook hauled in a 36-yard score with 1:38 remaining in the half, tying the game at 17-17.

In the third quarter, the Utes hit a pair of field goals to take a six-point lead, 23-17, into the fourth quarter. The Hoosiers defense again came up huge when it mattered most, forcing a Utah fumble to set up the offense at its own 40-yard line.

IU marched down the field with an 11-play, 60-yard drive that finished with Redding's 3-yard score to give Indiana a 24-23 lead with 10:10 left.

The Hoosiers reached the Utah 47-yard line with five seconds remaining, but a desperation heave from Lagow was tipped at the line.

Defensively, Indiana had a season-high four takeaways along with a season-best five sacks.

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 21-36-1

He accomplished that feat in 1967, when he led the Hoosiers to a 9-2 record, a Big Ten co-championship and an appearance in the Rose Bowl against eventual national champion Southern California. Perhaps more remarkable than the Hoosiers' strong showing against the national champs was the fact that this same team could only muster a 1-8-1 record the previous season, thus making the 1967 Big Ten Champions a true "rags to roses" story. Pont earned unanimous national coach of the year honors that season and was selected as head coach of the East team in the 1968 Coaches' All-American game. Pont's jersey is retired at Miami (Ohio) and in 1969 he was one of six charter members inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

While at Indiana, Corso was active with the American Football Coaches Association. He also served on the Ethics Committee, the Rules Committee and the NCAA Public Relations Seminar. During his tenure, he coached in the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. Corso is currently employed by ESPN, where he works as a studio analyst on College Gameday.

He then left Indiana to become the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. He led that squad to the 1988 AFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth against the 49ers. Wyche coached the Bengals for eight seasons before becoming the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. In 1987, Mallory became the first Big Ten coach to be awarded back-to-back coach of the year honors. That year, he led the Hoosiers to an 8-4 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten, and a Peach Bowl appearance. Mallory led the Indiana to six bowl games, including victories in the 1988 Liberty Bowl and the 1991 Copper Bowl. He also led IU to a top-20 ranking in 1988

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-28

Cam Cameron led the Hoosiers for five seasons and compiled a record of 18-37. He was the second Indiana alum (A.B. Woodford, 1887) to take over at the helm of the IU football program. Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football. Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo. Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. He will always be remembered as one of the most influential coaches in school history. In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoeppner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest team in the Big Ten (49 true or redshirt freshmen and 72 underclassmen overall), to five victories - its most since the 2001 campaign - and restored an enthusiasm in IU football. The 2006 Hoosiers picked up three Big Ten wins for the first time since 2001, including a 31-28 win over No. 13 (Coaches) Iowa. Earning its final conference victory of the season, the Hoosiers dominated Michigan State, 46-21, on Homecoming to bring the Old Brass Spittoon back to Bloomington for the first time since 2001. Hoepfner made an immediate impact in his first year at the helm of the Hoosier program. Coach Hep rejuvenated an IU fan base that enjoyed a 39-percent increase in per-game attendance, a 46-percent increase in overall season ticket sales and a 110-percent increase in student season ticket sales.

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Old Oaken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. IU boasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Oaken Bucket games.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

FRED GLASS - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie appointed Fred Glass Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on January 1, 2009, after one of the most tumultuous decades in the history of IU Athletics. For the last nine-plus years, Glass has worked tirelessly to return his alma mater to its rightful place as one of the premier athletic departments in the country. His tenure has been marked by establishing clearly articulated priorities; instituting groundbreaking initiatives; dramatic improvements in fundraising, facilities, and fan experiences; and a deep commitment to the wellness, development, and achievement of the students under his charge. With those priorities in place and many of the facility projects either finished or near completion, Glass has IU Athletics well-positioned for a new golden age of success both on and off the field. Forbes Magazine recently named Indiana University one of "25 Schools that Dominate Academically and Athletically."

Initiatives

Glass established five priorities for the department and its students, which have become the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director: 1.) playing by the rules; 2.) being well in mind, body and spirit; 3.) achieving academically; 4.) excelling athletically and 5.) integrating with the rest of the University and being a part of something bigger than yourself. Building on these priorities, Glass subsequently unveiled a creed that represents Indiana University Athletics' core values: The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass established The Excellence Academy, one of the nation's most innovative and comprehensive student personal development programs. The Excellence Academy is now housed in a new $48 million, 66,000-square foot facility enclosing the south end of Memorial Stadium.

In 2014—building on the department's priorities, Spirit of Indiana and Excellence Academy—Glass unveiled the Indiana University Student-Athlete Bill of Rights, a first of its kind, 10-point document that sets forth the department's commitment to students who participate in intercollegiate athletics during their time at IU and beyond. Glass also established the Spirit of Indiana Showcase, an annual awards gala celebrating our students' top athletic and academic achievements as well as other talents. The Spirit of Indiana Director's Award honors the senior male and female student who, on the whole, best personify the tenets of The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. A leading advocate for sexual violence prevention, Glass established intercollegiate athletics' most comprehensive Sexual Violence Disqualification Policy, which prohibits any individuals who have a documented record of sexual violence from participating in intercollegiate athletics for Indiana University.

Student Achievement

Since Glass's arrival in 2009, 19 teams and 146 individuals have won conference championships, 40 students have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports, 503 students have earned All-American honors, three students have been named Big Ten Athlete of the Year, 20 coaches have been named conference coach of the year, five coaches have been named national coach of the year and the department has produced a national team championship, as well as 22 individual national champions.

During Glass's tenure, Indiana students participating in intercollegiate athletics have also excelled in the classroom. Since 2009, 2,082 students have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors (including a record 256 in 2017-18), 487 have been named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (including a record 68 in 2017-18), 25 students have been named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, and 1,100 have graduated. Ninety-six teams have had perfect single-year APR scores and 34 teams have received NCAA APR public recognition awards. Students earned an average GPA of 3.15 during the 2017-18 academic year. The Graduate Success Rate for IU students participating in intercollegiate athletics during Glass's tenure has increased dramatically from 74.4% in 2011 to most recently, 90.6%, an Indiana University record.

Finances and Fundraising

Under Glass' stewardship, Indiana Athletics has been financially self-supporting without any tuition contribution, student fee, or taxpayer money. In fact, the Athletic Department annually pays over $17 million to the University in tuition, room and board, books and fees for scholarships and is helping to fund the University's new Global and International Studies Building and Regional Academic Health Center.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue the department's priorities, Glass has cut administrative overhead and increased fundraising. He eliminated 10 senior administrative staff positions he inherited annually freeing up nearly two million dollars. Under Glass' leadership, more $1 million plus gifts have been raised than in the entire rest of the history of IU Athletics. Glass has secured 16 of the 17 largest gifts in department history, alone totaling $105 million. For the fifth time since Glass became athletic director, IU has set an annual giving record.

As part of the University's Bicentennial Capital Campaign, Athletics is in the process of raising a record goal of $215 million for scholarships and capital improvements, almost three times Athletics' last capital campaign goal.

Facilities

Glass has led a much-needed effort to renovate and expand IU's aging athletic facilities, all without any use of tuition contribution, student fees or taxpayer money. As part of the Bicentennial Capital Campaign, there are more than $80 million in new capital projects currently underway, including the Excellence Academy, Wilkinson Hall and the IU Golf Course renovation. Those projects come on the heels of more than $170 million in new or renovated facilities already completed during Glass's tenure.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Those projects include, among others: Simon-Skjoldt Assembly Hall (2017), Mark Cuban Center for Sports Media and Technology (2017), Rowing Boathouse (2015), Bart Kaufman Field (2013), Andy Mohr Field (2013), D. Ames Shuel Academic Center (2012), James and Nancy Wilkinson Performance Center (2012), Cook Hall (2010), North End Zone Student-Athlete Development Center (2009), Henke Hall of Champions (2009), Cecil Weathers Golf Team Center (2009) and the Ireland Family Field Hockey Fieldhouse (2009).

This 10-year, one quarter of a billion dollar investment in facilities will greatly enhance the experience and ability to compete for our students who participate in intercollegiate athletics for a generation or more.

Fan Experience

Glass can often be found attending competitions and interacting with fans in and around the stands. As a result of his relentless focus on improving the game day football experience, football attendance in Glass' first year as athletic director (2009) increased by 32%, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country that year and the highest IU attendance since 1992. This increase has not only been maintained, but increased, over the ensuing eight years. Also focusing on preserving and improving the game atmosphere in Simon-Skjoldt Assembly Hall, IU has finished in the top 10 nationally in attendance for men's basketball in each of the last seven years and boasts the nation's largest student section. In women's basketball, IU has more than doubled its average home attendance during Glass' tenure, highlighted by a school-record average of 4,102 during the 2017-18 WNIT Championship season. Indiana's 165% increase in average attendance at women's basketball over the last decade is easily the best in the Big Ten, more than double its closest competitor.

Background

Glass is a double graduate of Indiana University and was a well-known Indianapolis lawyer and civic leader before being named a vice president and the director of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater. Born in Indianapolis, Glass earned bachelor's (Bloomington) and law (Indianapolis) degrees from IU in 1981 and 1984, respectively.

Glass played a central role in several major sports-related initiatives in Indianapolis, including negotiating the 30-year agreement to keep the Colts in Indianapolis, developing Lucas Oil Stadium and an expanded Indiana Convention Center, and helping to negotiate the arrangement to regularly bring Final Fours and other major NCAA events to the city. Formerly a partner in the law firm of Baker & Daniels, Glass served as chairman of the firm's management committee. He was appointed by Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson to the Capital Improvement Board and was elected its president. Glass also has served as Chief of Staff to then Governor Evan Bayh, Chairman of Mayor Peterson's transition team, and in a number of other civic, legal, and sports related positions. Glass also served as president of the City of Indianapolis' 2011 Super Bowl Bid Committee, which although not successful for that year, has been credited with successfully laying the groundwork for the city's successful bid for 2012.

Upon his appointment of Glass, Indiana University President Michael McRobbie said, "In all of these major undertakings, Fred demonstrated a remarkable talent for leadership, for mastering the details of big challenges, for diplomacy, and for consensus building. He has a well-earned reputation as someone who can get the big things done. He is exactly the person we need to take on the challenges our Athletics Department will encounter in the next decade." Tony Dungy added: "I worked very closely with Fred on the Super Bowl effort, and I was very impressed with his vision, leadership and judgment. Indiana University has made an outstanding choice."

Family

Glass and his wife, Barbara, who Fred met at an IU football game and graduated from IU in 1980, have four children and four grandchildren. They are: Katie Askey, a 2008 IU Kelley School graduate and her husband Tom Askey, also a 2008 Kelley School graduate, and their daughters Betsy, Ellie and Anna Rose; Joe, (Marquette University '10) a 2014 graduate of the Indiana University McKinney School of Law and his wife Emily (MacGill), a 2010 IU graduate and their daughter Lucy; Connor, a 2014 IU School of Journalism graduate; and George, a 2017 Kelley School graduate. Fred, Barbara, Katie, Tom, Joe, Emily, Connor, and George are all life members of the IU Alumni Association.

Engagement

Glass and his wife Barbara made a major gift in support of the Excellence Academy to the Bicentennial Capital Campaign which will establish the Glass Family Student-Athlete Leadership Suite. The gift also names a men's basketball locker in honor of lifelong Glass family friend and IU alumnus Bob Clifford who passed away on May 11, 2016. A portion of the gift will also go to support scholarships for students who participate in intercollegiate athletics.

Glass has twice had his head shaved to stand in solidarity with kids fighting cancer at a St. Baldrick's event in Indianapolis, raising over $35,000 for the cause. In May 2012, Glass received the Distinguished Alumni Award from IU's Robert H. McKinney School of Law. In April 2010, Glass was presented the Trevor R. Brown Award by the students of the Indiana Daily Student and the Arbutus for his contributions to the experiences of student journalists. Glass has also received the Brebeuf Jesuit President's Medal in 2007; The St. Thomas More Society Man for All Seasons Award in 2006; the 2006 Spirit of Service Community Service Award from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; the 2005 Charles L. Whistler Award from The Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee; the 2004 Fred McCasland Outstanding Alumnus Award (Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School); and the National Catholic Education Association Distinguished Graduate Award (St. Thomas Aquinas School in Indianapolis) in 2003.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE - Indiana University's 18th President

Michael A. McRobbie became the 18th president of Indiana University on July 1, 2007. IU is one of the largest universities in the United States, with seven campuses, a total budget of more than $3.5 billion, more than 9,000 faculty, 11,000 staff, more than 112,000 students, and approximately 700,000 living alumni.

McRobbie joined IU in 1997 as the university's first vice president for information technology and chief information officer. He was appointed vice president for research in 2003. In 2006, he was named interim provost and vice president for academic affairs for IU's Bloomington campus.

Under McRobbie's leadership as president, IU has seen:

*A major expansion in the size, quality, and diversity of its student body;

*the largest academic restructuring in its history during which ten new schools have been established;

*A reinvigoration of its global engagement that support the university's international academic and educational programs;

*The construction or renovation of more than 100 major new facilities across all campuses with a total value of around $2.5 billion; and

*The launch of the largest fundraising campaign in IU's history and one of the largest ever by a public university—"For All: The Indiana University Bicentennial Campaign," which has a goal of raising $3 billion by IU's Bicentennial in 2020.

McRobbie also oversaw the development of The Bicentennial Strategic Plan for Indiana University, a comprehensive set of strategic initiatives that cover all IU's campuses and are to be implemented by the Bicentennial.

McRobbie holds faculty appointments in computer science, philosophy, cognitive science, informatics, and computer technology, and has been an active researcher in information technology and logic during his career. He has been the principal investigator on many major grants, has published a number of books and many articles, and has served on numerous editorial boards and conference committees.

In addition to his duties as president, McRobbie serves on several outside committees and organizations. He serves as co-chair of the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine's Committee on the Future of Voting. He also serves on the board of directors of the Applied Research Institute, a nonprofit institute in Indiana that accelerates the commercialization of technology across the state.

McRobbie also serves as vice chair of the board of directors of the Indiana University Health system—one of the largest and most highly regarded hospital systems in the U.S.—and on the board of the OneAmerica insurance company, based in Indianapolis.

He is a former chair of the Board of Trustees of Internet2, and the former chair of the board of directors of the Digital Preservation Network.

A native of Australia, McRobbie received a Ph.D. from the Australian National University in 1979 and has honorary doctorates from the University of Queensland (2007); Sung Kyun Kwan University in Korea (2008); the Australian National University (2010); the South East European University in Macedonia (2011), which IU helped found; and Griffith University in Australia (2014). He was honored by the Australian National University as Alumnus of the Year in 2015.

He was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2012 and is an honorary fellow of the Australian Academy of Humanities. He was appointed a member of the Council on Foreign Relations in 2016. He is a two-time recipient of the Sagamore of the Wabash, one of the highest honors the governor of Indiana can bestow on a private individual. He is also an Officer of the Order of Australia, Australia's national honors system. In 2012, he was listed as one of America's 10 most popular university presidents.

He has received the Bicentenary Medal of the University of Warsaw in Poland, the Prince Naradhip Bongsprabandha Plaque for services to international education from the National Institute for Development Administration in Thailand, and the International Citizen of the Year Award from the International Center for outstanding contributions to the globalization of Indiana.

McRobbie is also a recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's "Man of Achievement Award," which recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to community, justice, and equal opportunity.

COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they would not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your consistent display of commitment and support for our IU student-athletes, coaches, and staff.

As a member institution of the NCAA, Indiana University is responsible for exercising institutional control over its intercollegiate athletics programs. Our efforts to exercise institutional control include educating boosters and fans of NCAA rules and regulations. Below you will find important definitions and information regarding restrictions that are in place for both boosters and fans. Our goal in providing this information is to protect the eligibility of both prospective and enrolled student-athletes.

A booster is defined as any individual or organization who:

- Attended Indiana University;
- Works at Indiana University;
- Donates Money to Indiana University;
- Purchases Indiana University athletics tickets; or
- Is a fan of Indiana University.

Please note that booster status, once triggered, remains with an individual or organization indefinitely. NCAA legislation prohibits boosters from engaging in certain activities related to both prospective and enrolled student-athletes. Boosters are prohibited from engaging in the following activities:

- Boosters may not contact prospective student-athletes, their relatives, legal guardians, teachers, or coaches for the purpose of recruitment. This includes but is not limited to:
o Written communication (including emails), telephone calls, and interaction via all social media outlets (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram).
- Boosters may not make special arrangements or provide any benefits to prospective or enrolled student-athletes, their family or friends.

If there is a prospective student-athlete that you would like to see wearing the cream and crimson in the future, please recommend that particular individual to the Indiana University Department of Athletics. In addition to the above restrictions placed on boosters, all fans should be aware of the additional restrictions related to extra benefits and publicizing recruitment.

An extra benefit is defined as a benefit provided to enrolled student-athletes, their family or friends that is based on their status as a student-athlete. Examples of extra benefits include, but are not limited to, transportation, lodging, meals, gifts, co-signing loans, etc. Providing an extra benefit to an enrolled student-athlete will always jeopardize his or her eligibility, and could possibly result in withholding from competition and repayment of the benefit. Further, all individuals, boosters and fans alike, must refrain from using a student-athlete's name, image, or likeness to promote a business, product or service.

Finally, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athlete being recruited by our institution, other than to confirm the prospect's recruitment. IU is prohibited from publicizing recruiting visits made to our campus by prospects, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring campus. Only after a prospective student-athlete makes an official commitment to IU by signing a National Letter of Intent (NLI) or an offer of athletics aid, may the university comment publicly on the recruitment. Publicity includes verbal comments, social media posts, or any other form of public comment.

The Indiana University Department of Athletics would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about these or other NCAA rules, please contact a member of our compliance staff (iucomply@indiana.edu) or visit our website at: www.iuhoosiers.com/compliance. Thank you for helping Indiana University play by the rules!

IU RADIO NETWORK

Indiana University's football program receives some of the most extensive media coverage in the country. Learfield Communications holds the exclusive rights as IU's official radio outlet.

Headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo., Learfield Communications oversees the multimedia rights and sponsorship initiatives for nearly 130 collegiate partners throughout the country.

For 46 years, Learfield has excelled in administering the multimedia rights for a host of reputable colleges and universities. It provides exclusive sports programming to close to 1,200 radio stations throughout the country. Learfield's strategic affiliation with Team Services, LLC, also affords its partners a distinct advantage in the areas of venue consulting, naming rights and market research.

DON FISCHER

This marks the 46th year that Don Fischer has been the radio play-by-play "voice" of Indiana University football and men's basketball games. He shares the fourth-longest football radio tenure in the nation. The past 32 years, Fischer has worked as an independent contractor and is currently serving the Indiana University Radio Network owned by Learfield Communications out of Jefferson City, Mo.

In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches radio talk shows for both the football and men's basketball programs. Fischer also offers stations a weekly talk show about IU football and basketball that airs in several markets around the state during the school year.

Fischer does freelance sportscasting, which included handling for 23 years the pre-season television play-by-play for the NFL's Indianapolis Colts (1995-2017).

During his 45 years with IU, Fischer has been named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year 29 times by two different organizations. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association has awarded him 25 times, while the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association has named him its honoree four times.

He received the inaugural Woody Durham College Voice Award from the National Sports Media Association, the University of North Carolina and Learfield Sports in June of 2018.

In October of 2010, Fischer was one of eight inductees into the Indiana Broadcast Pioneers Richard M. Fairbanks Hall of Fame. The Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association (ISSA) inducted Fischer into the ISSA Hall of Fame in 2004.

He has won several awards for best play-by-play performance, and he has been honored by Indiana University with the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal, that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University.

Fischer also has been named an Honorary "I" Man. In addition, the City of Indianapolis, and the State of Indiana have each honored Fischer with a special "Recognition Day" for his service and abilities as the play-by-play broadcaster for IU.

He has broadcast over 1,900 Indiana University games - a total that includes 10 bowl games, four NCAA basketball championship games and two N.I.T. championship games.

From 1973 through 1987, he worked for ABC Radio, Canada's CBC and several additional major market radio stations, including WIRE in Indianapolis, as their source for reports during the month of May coverage of the Indianapolis 500. During that period, Fischer also served WIRE and Network Indiana, a statewide news network, as their sports director.

A native of Rochelle, Ill., Fischer has been in the radio business for 52 years. His previous broadcast experience includes stops in Butte, Mont.; Ottawa, Ill.; Springfield, Ill.; and Terre Haute, Ind.

Fischer has four sons and 12 grandchildren. Don and his wife, Susy, reside in Greenwood, Ind.

BUCK SUHR

Bucky Suhr rejoined the Indiana University Football Radio Network as color commentator in 2010. Suhr, who served in the same capacity from 1997-2001, reunited with the Voice of the Hoosiers, Don Fischer, and Joe Smith (pre-game, post-game and halftime).

Suhr was a member of the Hoosier football program for 18 years as a running backs coach and administrator. He spent 12 seasons (1984-95) as running backs coach under IU's all-time winningest coach, Bill Mallory.

After his stint as a coach, where he tutored All-America selections Anthony Thompson and Vaughn Dunbar, Suhr was named administrative assistant to the head coach and athletic director from 1996-2001.

As running backs coach, Suhr helped direct one of the nation's most productive rushing attacks. From 1984-95, the Hoosiers had three different 1,000-yard rushers who topped that mark on six separate occasions. In 1988, the IU offense rushed for a then-school record 2,963 yards.

During his tenure, Suhr coached Thompson, the 1989 Heisman Trophy runner-up, along with Dunbar and Alex Smith, the 1994 UPI National Freshman of the Year.

Suhr and his wife, Jane, are the parents of one son, Errek, and the deceased Jenny Suhr. Errek played in 74 games and earned four letters as a guard for the IU men's basketball program from 2004-07.

They have four grandchildren: Addy, Hayden, Taylor and Mack.

JOE SMITH

Joe Smith is in his 35th year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime, and post-game duties for Indiana football and men's basketball since 1983.

Smith, the sports director of WGCL-AM 1370 in Bloomington, is in his 49th year of radio broadcasting in Bloomington. He began his broadcasting career in 1969 at WAIK Radio in Galesburg, Ill. From 1973-89, Smith worked on "RFD-4 Agri-Business Show" on WTTV-4 with the late Bob Cook. In 1998, Smith was named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year and in April 2003, he was inducted into the Indiana Sportswriters/Sportscasters Hall of Fame. Smith handled the IU TV Warmup Shows from 1978-82 and hosted several IU Coaches Shows from 1983-96 and again from 2002-04.

In June 2004, Smith received the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University.

Smith has two children, both of whom are Indiana University graduates. Jeff, currently resides in Brownsburg, Ind., with his wife, Kristen, and their sons, Jayden, Kaleb and Logan. Joe's daughter, Jamie, and her husband, Eric, currently reside in Bloomington with their son, Ethan and two daughters, Emerson and Carolina.
